

DESPERATE HOUSECAT AJAX A759244

AJAX is extremely shy in the shelter environment, but once he's in his forever home, he will warm up. He was brought to AAC with BABY A759246 and ABBY A759243 after living with the same owner since he was a kitten. AJAX is a lap cat and is very easy to handle. He is great with other cats, but we don't know how he is with dogs. AJAX needs a very quiet home with a patient adopter who will give him time to adjust.
