

DESPERATE HOUSECAT

BENJAMIN A850668

BENJAMIN is an awfully big name for this little cutie, so his foster family shortened it to BENJI to fit his size. BENJI came to AAC as a stray with an injured leg, but after some extensive surgery, he has fully recovered and is ready to find his forever family. BENJI is cuddly and very playful, and he loves chasing toy mice and lasers. He lets you carry him, and he'll snuggle up with you on the couch. BENJI loves people, and his FOMO doesn't let him miss out on anything that's going on around the house. He'll hang out wherever you are (even the bathtub!), and doesn't take too kindly to closed doors! He can also be talkative and will share his opinions with you.

BENJI would do best having someone around most of the day, because he gets pretty sad when he's left alone. He gets along with other cats, and does well with respectful children. He has great house manners and is not destructive. If you're looking for a playful, affectionate buddy to follow you around the house, then BENJI is probably perfect for you!
