

DESPERATE HOUSECAT DOJO A911889

DOJO has been a bit irritated, but you would be too if you didn't feel well. He was brought to AAC as a stray, and was in rough shape. He's been receiving treatment for a variety of issues, and is recovering well. Volunteers and staff are working with DOJO, helping him become more comfortable with humans. We believe that once he feels better, he will be receptive to attention. DOJO may get along with other cats (after proper introductions).
