

DESPERATE HOUSECAT

Young, shy and pretty ERMIE is a quiet beauty of a calico who is looking for a patient adopter that will give her the time to adjust to a new home. ERMIE has been frightened at the shelter, but is coming out of her shell. She likes petting and is easy-going around other cats.

ERMIE has been an indoor-outdoor cat in the past and could be again if necessary. She is unknown around children and dogs and would be happiest in an adult home with other cats.
