

DESPERATE HOUSECAT

FRIDA A749802

Beautiful young FRIDA has been fearful here and overlooked since she's afraid of other cats, and can be a little shy. This affectionate girl has a loud purr, has an adorable tiny meow and a cute short tail. She is friendly, mellow and easy, but can get over-stimulated, so watch for tail flicks signaling that it is time to stop petting.

FRIDA would really like home where she can be the only cat. We don't know how FRIDA is around dogs or children, so a slow, supervised introduction would be in order.
