

DESPERATE HOUSECAT

HENDRICKSON A763419

Young HENDRICKSON is super active, playful and fun. This friendly guy loves to climb and would really benefit from a home with a tall cat tree where he can have a high spot from which to survey his domain indoors. HENDRICKSON is very confident and can seem independent, but he really loves affection and petting in between running and playing. He can get aroused when petted too much, so it's important to know cat body language to avoid getting him upset. HENDRICKSON has a sweet voice and can be talkative with visitors. This boy is litter box trained and looking for the perfect indoor-only home.
