

DESPERATE HOUSECAT

QUEEN CLEOCATRA A881237

QUEEN CLEOCATRA was brought at AAC as a stray, and caught a kitty cold shortly after her arrival. She was easy to treat, and is now fully recovered. While in her kennel (which she's been in way too long), QUEEN CLEOCATRA is easy to handle, very playful, and likes being petted. However, she often feels nervous when she's taken out, so we believe she may not care for other cats. Once QUEEN CLEOCATRA is in a real home (through adoption or foster), we think that she will relax and show her true, wonderful personality.
