

DESPERATE HOUSECAT ROO 7099

Would you like to adopt a very special cat? ROO needs a very special home! She has a neurological condition that affects her balance and coordination (similar to Cerebellar Hypoplasia - she wobbles when she walks). Her DVM believes that ROO was born with this condition, and it will not worsen with time. She is very smart and independent, and has mastered climbing up and down her ramp to be on the couch (check out her videos)! ROO requires a large litterbox and never misses. Both the ramp and the litterbox go with her when she's adopted. ROO is an extremely happy, affectionate cat. She is playful (her fave is a wand toy), and she loves nothing more than to be in a lap and snuggle. She walks around well on tile floors, but carpeting, rugs or mats will make her life a lot easier. She enjoys chasing and playing with her foster siblings. We think ROO is worth the little extra effort that adopting her will require!
