SAM A757240

Gentle Giant SAM is slow to warm up, but with patient attention, is a big fellow who loves lap time. This handsome young guy has been overlooked in the shelter during our long kitten season, and he's still a baby himself – just 2 years old!

SAM came into the shelter after making the mistake of biting someone and wasn't reclaimed when his quarantine time ended. SAM is really tired of being cooped up in a little kennel and can seem a little grabby when visiting him, but he really just has pent-up energy, as most 2 year old cats do!

SAM needs a home where he can be understood by someone who knows cat body language and will "listen" to him. Once he settles in, he may be OK with other cats with a proper introduction. Will you be the one who gives SAM a second chance?
