

DESPERATE HOUSECAT STAVROS A818064

STAVROS (the Brave) is certainly not afraid of sweet, sweet lovin'! This gorgeous boy loves to closely snuggle up with a trusted friend and get belly rubs (and no, he won't attack your hand like many cats). He loves foot rubs too! He prefers dry food to wet, and LOVES treats (especially salmon flavored). He is very expressive and chatty! STAVROS is a well-behaved boy who enjoys playing, watching cat TV on the windowsill, and cozy snuggles after a long day at the biscuit factory. 😊 However, one cannot be brave in the absence of fear! While STAVROS bravely seeks out love and affection, he is easily spooked by new people, sounds, and other animals. It takes him more time than other cats, but he perseveres through his fear and becomes braver with each passing day. STAVROS needs parents who are patient, understanding, and go slowly with him at first. Those who are patient with this little angel will quickly be rewarded with one of the most affectionate and loving cats this side of the Mississippi!
