STEVIE KNICKS A842149

STEVIE KNICKS was brought to AAC as a stray, so we don't know anything about her history. We do know that when she arrived, she was very scared in the shelter environment. Since then, she has relaxed a bit, but she's still nervous. During her photo session, STEVIE KNICKS didn't mind being in a lap or being petted. She is friendly, and is easy to pick up and hold. We believe that once STEVIE KNICKS is in a real home, her true personality will emerge, and she will be a loving companion. She seems tolerant of other cats.
