

DESPERATE HOUSECAT TIGGER A730753

TIGGER is a handsome hunk of orange tabby love! This sweet, shy boy lost the only home he'd ever known because his elderly owner could no longer take care of him (TIGGER was very attached to them). TIGGER didn't do well in the shelter environment, but now that he's living in a foster home, his true personality is showing. He enjoys being petted, and is great with his foster siblings. He's also quite playful. TIGGER needs a quiet home and a patient adopter who will give him time to adjust to a new environment.
