

DESPERATE HOUSECAT NEO 21250

NEO is a handsome gentleman with the most beautiful green-eyed gaze. After arriving at the shelter scared and shut down, He was fortunate to be placed in foster care where his incredible personality is once again shining. Underneath his in-shelter shyness is a social, extremely loving cat who wants nothing more than to be near his people. NEO is cuddly, treat-motivated, and loves being brushed. He bonds deeply with the humans he trusts and has so much love to give (he's the perfect mix of independent and affectionate). NEO has a unique behavior issue, so he needs an attentive adopter. He has suspected pica, meaning he compulsively tries to eat non-food items like socks, hair ties, string, and other small objects. Because of this, NEO's adopter should provide a clean, carefully managed home and keep unsafe items out of reach. This small effort is well worth it for the companionship and love you will get in return.
