

DESPERATE HOUSECAT REED 28258

REED is a sweet, handsome boy who was living in a community for many months and was brought to AAS because he was begging for food and losing weight. It is believed that his owners moved and left him behind. We don't know much about him, although he has been very calm and friendly since his arrival. He seems very social and used to being around humans. He's also a lap cat. All he really wants is three squares a day, some love, and a warm bed to sleep in at night, either through adoption or foster. He may be fine with other cats.
