

DESPERATE HOUSECAT

TANGERINE DREAM 25304

TANGERINE DREAM is very sensitive and shy. He and several other cats were brought to AAS after they were abandoned, so he is still learning that people can be a good thing. TANGERINE DREAM tends to maintain distance from humans, although he enjoys interacting with a wand toy when he can do it from afar. He is comforted by his roommates MARMALADE and SAGE, and they are helping him to feel more confident. TANGERINE DREAM would love to be adopted with one of them, or into a home with a resident feline that he can pal around with. He needs an adopter who will be patient and give him plenty of time and space to adjust to a new home and to new people.
